I'm gonna miss you
Back on planet Earth
Now that I'm so high

Been a long time
Livin' in a world of crime
Never again, friend of a friend
Tellin' it's a lie

Boy, I think you're way out of line
Better luck again next time
Never again, friend of a friend
Tellin' it's a lie

And I don't understand
Why'd they choose me
The abduction of my soul reality
How long I've been gone
I do not really know
But I think I see a planet below

Spaceship - long trip - fat lip - fly
It's been a long time
Livin' in a world of crime
Never again, friend of a friend
Tellin' it's a lie

And I don't understand
Why'd they choose me
The abduction of my soul reality
How long I've been gone
I do not really know
But I think I see a planet below

And I don't understand
Why'd they choose me
The abduction of my soul reality
How long I've been gone
I do not really know
But I think I see a planet below

I don't understand

Why'd they choose me
The abduction of my own reality
How long I've been gone
I do not really know
But I think I see
Think I see a planet
