Something big happened years ago
Music has changed my quiet soul
There is always an answer if you look deep inside
A way to stop hurting, an end to all lies

Music can give a powerful strength
To run the race 'till the end
No one to catch you when you fall
Only the bass to take control

Snare drum, kicks, and reversed bass
Make me scream against the pain
I'll cut you to open and look inside
If your heart was cold, just like mine

Hard bass sound and heavy drum
Praise the volume, the music has come
So let us melt and make no noise
Hard sound raves are our choice

Can you feel it?
Come on

Hard bass sound and heavy drum
Praise the volume, the music has come
So let us melt and make no noise
Hard sound raves are our choice

Can you feel it?
