They say, which you don't know might kill you
But which you don't know might chill you
Choose one, you going undefeated or wanna lose one?
I'm going undefeated I wanna lose none
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
What's going undefeated when you can lose tons
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
We going undefeated I wanna lose none

They say god is all around you when the devil is close Can't put the time on eternity the bezel is broke My leveling folks will want you on their love with the most

Can't choose then you gonna have to settle the both Walk to , go to school, , dope

I wanna take a vacation, maybe paddle a boat Seen a lot of base so much, my trouble would broke And you're hallucinating, and I think the devil just spoke

Had to shake that, now I'm feeling heaven is close I want the world now, you still want the love in that most Got a girl now, and we living better than most So quit the girl sounds, crying man, I'm better than hope

I mean no more wishing for these things in life A ring, a wife, a life filled with bling and ice I seen the scene, it's nice, made me ,that nice I'm trying to eat till I'm full Desert is beans and rice

They say, which you don't know might kill you
But which you don't know might chill you
Choose one, you going undefeated or wanna lose one?
I'm going undefeated I wanna lose none
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
What's going undefeated when you can lose tons
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
I'm going undefeated I wanna lose none

Shout out to animal, that was my true When I was 13-14 with nothing to do

But find a 13-14 something to screw
Sarah called on my grandmother
If it wasn't for you
It's a rap , I'd be stuck in the zoo
I think about Jay Brooks 12 busting his tool
We did juvi life wonder was he running from school
Why was he on the block then? Was he one of them mules?

No structure at home, he went to , Cause when they tell you freeze down They really dare you to move What's scariest truth, with man hoods embarrassing dudes

And at lunch, a fight break so beware when it's food

So thanks to the listeners for listening Sometimes I like to reminiscence some shit I even miss.

But think about my life right now, I'd kiss it then
Open my eyes and see nobody's listening
That means it's just me and the booth
I'm speaking the truth, don't wanna be like bishop and juice

I just wanna say my name without the whipping and roots

I just wanna play the game I hope I'm getting it through

They say, which you don't know might kill you
But which you don't know might chill you
Choose one, you going undefeated or wanna lose one?
I'm going undefeated I wanna lose none
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
What's going undefeated when you can lose tons
You going undefeated or did you lose some?
I'm going undefeated I wanna lose none

All I wanan do is go undefeated Play this game called life and I'm the one to beat it 32 and , number one ,

Got me 4 timeouts left my score when needed I see the zone blitz if you wanna score then read it Take the underneath routes and you'll get more completed

The defense will , they looking more depleted This ain't sports this is life I'm going undefeated

They say, which you don't know might kill you But which you don't know might chill you I'm going undefeated and I ain't lose none Night is like the day to me I never lose sun I'm going undefeated I never lose one

This here is champion music so if you lose tons You can lose tongue no speech then you lose funs All my people undefeated, that's how we do.

Thanks to Andrei
