The songs are my soundtrack to life
Blurred visions, I saw black and white
Images of the past are relived
And all the rough edges I had to give

Ive learnt the bad plenty of times and all Ive wanted is resolve Now Im taking the road lesser walked down to stand stand up and fight

Slowly Im fighting these demons
Endeavoring to fight off the fears Here Ill stand by what I beleive in and make what I hate dissappear

Glancing back on memories,
I realise the past aint what it seems
Can I appreciate the now?
I sense no fufillment somehow

This curse over me, will it stray?
Im drained from keeping it at bay
With what are these demons replaced
When your hollow inside.

Slowly Im fighting these demons
Endeavoring to fight off the fears
Here Ill stand by what I beleive in
and shall make what I hate dissappear

Slowly Im fighting these demons
Endeavoring to fight off the fears
Here Ill stand by what I beleive in
and shall make what I hate dissappear

Forever Im fighting these demons Forever Ill fight off my fears
