And suddenly your mind it is alive
With all the details of your life
The names and faces
When your blood was all inside
It's a lonely ride the river
Flowing out into the ocean
Drifting south until the universe is lost in white
It's a lonely ride the river
Flowing out into the ocean
Drifting south until the universe is lost in white
It's a lonely ride the river
Flowing out into the ocean
Drifting south until the universe is lost in white
And suddenly your mind it is alive
With all the details of your life
The names and faces
When your blood was all inside
Had a cherry-blossom baby
And a brother in the navy
Was a miracle, she saved me
Changed my life for good

But everyone's a DJ

Everyone's a critic today

We're all miracles, and maybes

Trading passion down for safety

It's a compromising world
