Make me harder than a coffin nail
Throw my chests against the wall
Take my bravenes
Check it off as failed
Let me bleed inside your hall
Cuz you want this

All of this will pass me by
Take another great mistake
Make it better as we speak

All you bawl is "You are all alone"
Call me faintheart,
Call me what you want
I can't waste another day for you
Can't stand the Avony you put me through
I won't share with you
Except for my mistakes
