These should be the best days of your live
But You worry all the goodness away these should be the times that you remember the most but you havent got the patience to day Down at the station a driver leaves late Everyone's days are adrift Well it's a domino effect and It's lost you our respect so you better get your boss a gift

cos they're tired of, tired of hanging around Yeah they're tired of, tired of hanging around yes they're tired of tired of hanging around

The bus turned up and you wouldn't believe The Driver had an attitude Well he gave my pass a check and he gave me no respect and it's got me in a terrible mood He's oblivious to all the pain that he's caused and all the pain that he's about to make Well i hope the next person to be the wrong person will wipe that stupid look off his face

So they're tired of, tired of hanging around Yeah they're tired of, tired of hanging around
yes they're tired of tired of hanging around

These should be the best days of our lives but we worried them all away And these should be the times we remmeber the most but we havent got the patience today

So we're tired of, tired of hanging around Yeah we're tired of, tired of hanging around yes we're tired of tired of hanging around

So we're tired of, tired of hanging around
Yeah we're tired of, tired of hanging around
yes we're tired of tired of hanging around

(Repeated til the end)
