Music of the wind blowing in the trees
A sky with a rainbow above
Message of change coming my way
I know it must be love

God laid you in my arms
All tiny and new
Your little hand in mine
I love you too

I watched you crawl and then to walk
Baby steps as you talked
Skinned knees and drying tears
Washed away any fears

And as you grew from year to year
Feeling so much pride
Follow your dreams no matter how far
I will always confide

God laid you in my arms
All tiny and new
Your little hand in mine
I love you too

Now you're all grown
With a child of your own
Eyes filled with love today
Music of the wind blowing in the trees
A rainbow above
We say

God laid you in my arms
All tiny and new
Your little hand in mine
I love you too
