

Kathleen Cartwright

"Too Many Tears"

Visit "Too Many Tears" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I rode real close to the roads we knew
I didn't take chances, it was me and you
Now you tell me, you found someone new

Well, I laid in bed and I cried last night
But there were too many tears for my heartache
Yes, there were too many tears for the heartache

I thought true love was what we had
I never dreamed there was another woman
Where is the life, the dreams we had

Well, I laid in bed and I cried last night
But there were too many tears for the heartache
Yes, there were too many tears for the heartache

I remember the night at the county fair
The carousel lights shining in your hair
You held my hand, I said a prayer
I said, please dear Lord, can we keep this night

Now there's too many tears for the heartache
Yes, there are too many tears for the heartache

Is there any chance you'll take me back
We have too many memories lighting up our past
I need your love, I need your laugh
Well, I lay in bed and I cried last night

Now there's too many tears for the heartache
Yes, there are too many tears for my heartache!

Visit Kathleen Cartwright page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.