The games that adults play the rules, the obligations the things to do each day
I just want to run away

Chorus:

I want to be carefree
I want to act crazy Jumping for joy and all of the possible maybes
I want to be carefree
I want to be sans souci
I want to be carefree again

Choices made in youth so many possibilities of who, where and whatever shut some doors forever.

(Chorus)

Directions that we take paths we choose to follow sometimes we lose our way and there's no going back.

(Chorus)
