Barely 13 met a boy in the neighborhood
Swore it was love
Holding hands every chance we could
Our parents said thatâ€™s not love
But that first kiss sure felt good

It gave me butterflies stars in my eyes
Cold chills on a hot summer night
Made me feel silly, Giddy
Laughing and a smiling a natural high
Momma said itâ€™s hard to describe it
The difference in love or something like it

All grown up out with a couple friends
Met the perfect guy
Thought I fell in love with him
It didnâ€™t last like I planned
Here I am Iâ€™m back to lonely again

I miss those butterflies, stars in my eyes
Cold chills on a hot summer night
Feeling silly, Giddy
Laughing and a smiling a natural high
I donâ€™t really care how you describe it
Iâ€™m looking for love or something like it

Here I am Iâ€™m sitting in this honky tonk
What Iâ€™m doing some may say is wrong
Iâ€™m just looking for someone to hold me
Awhile until the lonely is gone

I want to feel butterflies, stars in my eyes
Cold chills on a hot summer night
Feeling silly, Giddy
Laughing and a smiling a natural high
I donâ€™t really care how you describe it
Iâ€™m looking for love or something like it
No I donâ€™t really care how you describe
Iâ€™m just looking for love or something like it
