It's a beautiful day and I'm riding round got the top down

And the radios playing Keith Urban

And the wind is blowin through my hair hey I don't care

If my heart is breakin

I love the feeling of the open road

I'm getting better every mile I go oh oh

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

I might think it's time to find my way

Back to who I was before Bye bye baby that's for sure

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

Not a cloud up there in the summer sky

And I wonder why I waited so many lonely nights

Crying getting over you I'm so over due

Hey enough already

My heart is lighter and its all so clear

It feels so good just getting out of here

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

I might think it's time to find my way

Back to who I was before Bye bye baby that's for sure

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

I love the feeling of the Open Road

I'm Getting Better every mile I go

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

I think it's time I find my way

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache

I think it's time I find my way

Back to who I was before Bye bye baby that's for sure

Hey What a Day to shake a heartache
