The 'criminal justice plus' paradigm is it...
Can you spare a dime to reflect and watch it?

You have to be able to catch them
You have to be able to hold them
You might need to be able to transfer them
C'mon, join the party

Washed up like washington
They're watching us, we're watching them
Half truth half consequence
Men in charge lack common sense

Sent off, not home but away
Notch in the wall reveals another day
Felt alive with machine gun rage
Left to die in this cement cage

What is legal here?
Join the party
Hide the truth
Smiling faces
Kid the youth
What is legal here?

If you're tired of the wash

Then you better come to party
The same thing we've been told for years
The same thing we've been told for years

The clearest of all terror is
The terrorist comparisons
Those who share the same interest in Convincing us to be convinced again

C'mon, this problem is hard
Join the party, join the party
The same thing we've been told for years
Ask yourself what is legal here

Revolution in a heartbeat

Evolution designed more intelligent than you
Prime-time shuck and jive pay-per-view
When you extremely render davinci's code

C'mon join the party
C'mon clench your jaws
Join the party, join the party
What is legal here?
