"...but then something terrible happened when the people learned to march somebody started a war and the only way i could think to stop it was to invent dance music" all the lying is making me violent all this trying

all this lying all this killing is making me violent all their lies are making me violent

is hurting my feelings i'm just trying, they're all lying

all this tv
is killing the feeling

all this feeling

channel to channel more government scandal burnt by the lies both sides of the candle in the wax of tracks I called all the facts research your leader

bleeding from back stabs and those jabs from our own stars and stripes we're punching bags sold our arms for the fight launching rockets at what cost are we right?

check your pockets

cost are we right?
how many children
have we lost overnight?

the hours
spent reflecting your life

all the trying all the lying

all this lying is killing my feelings all this trying, all their lying
don't believe the hype
