Perhaps when you are safely in baghdad
You will feel differently about the venture -
I doubt it

Finger poppin' beats are lockin
Theramin highs
Lost in triangulation
Worlds collide
Cash satellite echoes back
From the pleasure dome
Mutual feelings
But I still like to let 'em know
And watch it flow
Catch the eargasm droplets
Triple penetration
Current household socket

Want it, need it,
Programming deleted
No need for cheating
When a heart's not beating
No mouth or attitude
One plug, one love
Last chance connections
Hope you've been debugged
Raise the rug
Crying buckets full of truth
My little sugar triangle
Who's feeling who?

Push the button
Become a mad scientist
Blow your top off

Something so hot and soft
It has evolved
For mankind it began with an accident
But we'll still make it better
Brought my toys to the table
I'm able to make it wetter
Finger poppin' beats are lockin'
Finger poppin' beats are lockin'

All we really know
Is in the depths that we go
Searching for utopia
I had to call it home
Can i ever let it go?
Can i ever let it go?

No, not until you tell me a story
A story? Huh, I'll sing you a lullabye instead they're shorter
(grandfather was still thinking about his checker game)
C'mon now, wendy
Grandfather will sing you a lullabye
And then you'll go to sleep, won't you?
Probably not.
Besides, you don't know any lullabyes
Tell me a story instead.
I don't know any lullabyes?
Huh! I'm the fella who invented lullabyes
In fact, i invented music!
What do you think of that Young lady?
