Silhouette in a smoke filled room
I see no evil and I speak none too
I know it's hard to say
?No, it was a long long time ago?
But now as a whole woman
You have to understand

Our addictions breakin' it hard
Our addictions makin' it hard

[Incomprehensible] conspiracy
Justice faults is our reality
He said, "Take off your clothes"
And the war began but it's a war at home
Were we ever free, if it's this easy?

Our addictions breakin' it hard
Our addictions makin' it hard

Our addictions make it hard
Our addictions make it hard
Our addictions make it hard
Our addictions make it hard
