Chorus:

{
It's too late, I know
Don't go back, don't go back
I still remember our first "I love you"

Thinking on it now
Can't go back, can't go back
To feel the heartache start over new

(chorus)

(chorus)

It was always the little things
That meant so much to me
It was so sweet in the beginning

The words that we heard
Between us are only
Subtle reminders of how we used to be

And I thought at one time
You would always be mine
Our future was waiting
Behind the line

And I thought we could be
That you and I would be
Together forever
But now I see

We are far apart
Our time has long been through
To mend a broken heart
And end this deja vu

We will find the strength
To finally tell ourselves
Though the road is rough

That we'll find someone else

La la la la la

La la la la la

La la la la la la la la la la

La la la la la

La la la la la

And I thought at one time
You would always be mine
Our future was waiting
Behind the line

And I thought we could be
That you and I would be
Together forever
But now I see

We are far apart
Our time has long been through
To mend a broken heart
And end this deja vu

We will find the strength
To finally tell ourselves
Though the road is rough
That we'll find someone else

(chorus)

(chorus)

Someday we will learn
To forget and forgive
And say "hello"
"Hello again. I love you"

Someday you will turn
Turn around and call down
To me the way you used to do

Someday we will learn
To forget and forgive
And say "hello"
"Hello again. I love you"

Someday you will turn

Turn around and call down
To me the way you used to do

It's too late at night

It's too late at night
