"Mo Funk"

It is time now, set me free
Just let me go, just let me be
I've waited too long for this day to come
Free me of these chains that tie me down
Free me of the air with pain abound
I want to run, I want to stride
I want to scream, I want to

It is time now, set me free
Just let me go, just let me be
I've waited too long for this day to come
Free me of these chains that tie me down
Free me of the air with pain abound
I want to run, I want to stride
I want to scream, I want to

Shout aloud what's brewing up inside
Have a lot to say I have nothing to hide
I've waited too long for this day to come
I'll soar across the skies
Infuse the air with a fragment of my life
I want to run, I want to stride
I want to scream, I want to shout
