"Back To The Future"

There's a place in the south of somewhere, that I'm going to visit Going back now in time and break free, and finally find it Loosing bonds a while and head for home

Got a phone call the other day now, hadn't heard in a long time
Took me back to the 69 now, laughter and sunshine Friends and dreams forever they will last

Back again, back to the future, back again, found you Back again, looking for old songs
I will keep it on, going all the way, looking for a new freedom
Starting me up now, like in early days, find it in the end
See the world today, something went astray, looking for a new freedom Starting me up now, see you in a haze, find you in the end

Now we're sitting right here together, and talk about good times Seems to me we've been here forever, finding the good rhymes
Listen to the sound I've just come home

Back again, back to the future, back again, found you
Back again, looking for old songs
I will keep it on, going all the way, looking for a new
Starting me up now, like in early days, find it in the end
See the world today, something went astray, looking
for a new freedom
Starting me up now, see you in a haze, find you in the
end
