So many lost hearts so lonely to live
Searching for answers to give

World's goin' crazy but why all this hate
Rich man and poor man, be straight

Find a way, stop the bleed, speak the words, and saw the seed

It's another day, arising now
Just another day, that's here
There's another way to lead us
And take me out of here
No rain but sky is clear
No greed, no hate, no fear
Makes us come alive

Don't get me wrong now just trying to say
Help out your fellow today Sail ashore, future build, calm you down, and break the shield

It's another day, arising now
Just another day, that's here
There's another way to lead us
And take me out of here
No rain but sky is clear
No greed, no hate, no fear
Makes us come alive
