I have been here such a long time, Iâ€™ve had my share of life
Met so many people, a lot of joy and strife Got memories from the old days, that made me carry on
You are young and I am old, together we are strong

One step two, I bring to you We're gonna change the world together, and to see it through
One step two, it's me and you We're gonna play the heroes making all dreams come true
So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never ends
But your father's life is mortal, you will make it with your friends
So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never dies
You are keen to take it over, I can see it in your eyes

And the times they are a changing, you have to seize the day
Things ain't what they used to be, you have to find a way
You have got to sow your seed now, and watch it how it grows
How you're gonna make it son, I tell you heaven knows

One step two, I bring to you
We're gonna change the world together, and to see it
through
We're gonna play the heroes making all dreams come
true
So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never ends
But your father's life is mortal, you will make it with
your friends
So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never dies
You are keen to take it over, I can see it in your eyes

One step two, I bring to you We're gonna change the world together, and to see you through One step two, it's only you You're gonna play the hero making all dreams come true

So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never ends
But your father's life is mortal, you will make it with
your friends
So we're leaving here tomorrow, tomorrow never dies
You are keen to take it over, I can see it in your eyes
