I got you on my mind, you are easy to find And your foot prints are covering me, I am longing to be

It's a star shining bright, it's a heart full of delight In my head there's a moment of you, I don't know what to do

High in the hills I run, still the picture of you See the morning out of the blue, yo're haunting me
down
Deep in the see you call, let the story be true
Doesn't matter if I hide away

I just can't let it go, you are squeezing me so Gonna search my whole life through, for the picture of you

High in the hills I run, like a white silhouette See the morning out of the blue , you never regret Deep in the woods I hide, still the shadow of you
I will never make me free from you

In my head I am dreaming on, see the picture of you And I do believe as the fairy tail will come true

High in the hills I run, still the picture of you
See the morning out of the blue, yo're haunting me
down
Deep in the see you call, let the story be true
I will never make me free from you
