When I die let the wolves enjoy my bones
When I die let me go
When I die let the wolves enjoy my bones
When I die let me go

When I die you can push me out to sea
When I die set me free
When I die let the sharks come 'round to feed
When I die set me free

Oh, the world is dark
And I've looked as far as I can see
When the years have torn me apart
Let me be

When I die let the flames devour me
When I die set me free
When I die throw my ashes to the breeze
When I die scatter me

Oh, the world is dark
And I've looked as far as I can see
When the years have torn me apart
Let me be
Let me be
Let me be
Let me be

Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
Daylight is waiting for you
