Can you hear that sound that's pounding
On and on again
It's hard to know you lost a friend

If old mistake comes new beginnings
Guess that's well deserved
And now you know what you were worth

Now you fall

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

If anything could be this perfect
Damn it must be you
And all the things that you would do

So now I look up at the stars
Hoping they're not far away
Couldn't catch them if I tried
Cause I'll never see the day

The same

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

And if you feel that you can't lead the way
I got your back and you know that I'll stay
Don't move your feet cause you know that you'll fall
Falling faster
Woah oh oh oh oh

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone

I miss you
I miss you
I'm so sorry
To know you're gone
