We got the windows down
And the radio up
Playing my jam now
Cause you never have enough of it
And I know
You're gonna come back for more

I caught her speeding on the edge of my life
Too bad my heard can't decide why I can't realize

What is going on
This world is wrong
We need a song

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

You know it's wrong for you to be easy
It's kind of coming off like you're sleezy and I
I know you'll never come around

Toasting drinks to the night of your life
I know you're not one to fight but I'm sure gonna try

What is going on
This world is wrong
We need a song

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

We're up all night
We don't need sleep
We're up all night
We do not think

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn

We'll make these cold hand touch
We'll make our world brand new
Along with everything you do

We will stay up all night
Because we know we're young
We're getting fires that burn
