My life has been watered down
Ever since you came around
Oh how things changed so fast
I knew it just couldn't last
You're what I need to stay alive
Without you I can't survive
The only opposite of false is true
The only opposite of me is you

I know you, way to well
Do you get my point of view
I know you, way to well
Do you see things the way I do

I feel like a shoe without a pair
I'm left untied cause you don't care
You're truly one of a kind

Not much more that I can find
Hopefully we can sit down
And talk about everything that went wrong
I'm left with out a clue
The problem isn't me it's you

Chorus

Do you get my point of view
Do you see things the way I do
Do you see things through my eyes
Maybe then you'll realize
I don't see things the way you do
Just try to walk in my shoes
I don't see things
I don't see things
I don't see things
Like you

Chorus (2x)
