Whenâ€” when love ends I am lost but composed Whenâ€” when love ends I am lost but composed I've foundâ€” I've found something else
hand held by fear
dealt death without cause

Drawâ€” draw on the mask
no one knows us, no one sees behind painted veils
I'm crowned by the scars
I hide that i'm lonely
(oh my god)
floating, drowning in apathy

When you see me
I start to run
you look away (and you're happy_)
and i don't understand the games that we play what makes us this way?
maybe it's wisdom; maybe it's fear

I've foundâ€” I've found something else
hand held by fear

no one knows us, no one sees
behind painted veils
I'm crowned by the scars
I- hide that i'm lonely
(oh my god)
floating, drowning in apathy

When you see me
I start to run
you look away (and you're happy_)
and i don't understand the games that we play
what makes us this way?

I, I'm my only friend my emotions always get the best of me I destroyâ€ destroy beautiful things (idk_) me to watch it dissolve

In my head destructive thoughts imagine the end like tulips are grown to be (blind_)

When you see me
I start to turn I've been lonely for so long that I'm used to this longed by the loss this room is empty by I call it home
