We was young
And still believed in a Hard Day's Night
But no one seemed to understand
And there was no relief in sight
The company man
He's got his nose glued to the charts
He says the record's doin' fine
But now the group is fallin' apart

I hope there's no hard feelin's
'Cause there isn't anyone to blame
I hope there's no hard feelin's
'Cause nothin' ever stays the same
While we was locked in Image Prison
Waitin' for that break
We was raped, re-shaped and tryin' to escape
Caught in a rock and roll time warp
Just tryin' to find the way to get out

Four years on
And things were really gettin' too intense
Critics ravin' 'bout our album
But we're makin' fifty cents
And in the end
We was facin' the hard, cold truth
So tomorrow come what may
Looks like it's Rick and The Tooth

We gave it everything we had to give
But it was gettin' so tough
Too much frustration makes it hard to live
I think enough is enough
I said enough is enough

I hope there's no hard feelin's
'Cause there isn't anyone to blame
I hope there's no hard feelin's
'Cause nothin' ever stay the same
While we was locked in Image Prison
Waitin' for that break
We was raped, re-shaped and tryin' to escape

Caught in a rock and roll time warp
Just tryin' to find the way to get out
Lemme out, lemme out
I gotta get out...
