You're close enough
To touch again
Where you should be
I'd love to think what your smile
Is leading to
I feel your eyes
Starting a fire all over me
Baby I know, I know what your arms can do

(*) Remember when lovin' took all night
Remember the feeling of doing it right
It's been so wrong, you've been gone too long
Now it's gonna be all right
We'll take all night again tonight

I think you know
That missing you
Took all my time
Loneliness never ran so deep till then
Now here we are
Lost in a feeling of feeling good
Baby you know, I'll love you again and again Repeat (*)
