"Happy Song"

I'm happy being me, are you happy being you?
If you live your life for someone else, you've got a lot to lose
Personal identity is something I hold dear
Won't bow to insecurity, I will not live in fear

I'm happy with myself, yeah man, I feel alright
And we can disagree but we don't have to fight
I'm happy with myself, yeah man, I feel alright
And we can disagree but we don't have to fight.

And if you're just so hardcore that you can't take a joke
Then my advice is to lighten up, don't give yourself a stroke
But if making something out of nothing is what you wanna do
Then you can have the headaches... and fuck you

I'm happy with myself, and man, I feel alright
And we can disagree but we don't have to fight
I'm happy with myself hey man, is that alright?
And who told you that you do everything right?

Do what you wanna do to make a better day
Do what you wanna do to find a better way
Do what you wanna do I hope you'll be fine
Do something for yourself while you still have the time.

I'm happy with myself, and man, I feel alright
And we can disagree but we don't have to fight
I'm happy with myself hey man, is that alright?
And we can disagree but we don't have to fight
