I stare at your face

Into your eyes

Outside there's so much

Passing us by

All of the sounds

All of the sights

Over the earth

And under the sky

Too much cold

And too much rain

Too much heartache

To explain

Chorus:

Who needs the world

When I've got you

Switch off the sun

The stars and the moon

I've all I need inside of this room

Who needs the world

When I've got you

I walk on the street

Talk in the dark
I see perfect strangers
Falling apart
I open my arms
Try to be true
Seems like my only truth
Is you
Am I wrong
Or am I right
All I want is you tonight
Chorus
Who needs the stars so bright
And the grass so green
In the morning light
Who needs the wind to blow
And the tide to rise
Who needs it?
I don't know
I don't know
Chorus out...
