Six foot six he stood on the ground, he weighted 235 pounds
But I saw that giant of a man brought down to his knees by love
He was the kind of man that would gamble on luck Look you in the eye and never back up But I saw him crying like a little whipped pup because of love

You can't see it with your eyes, hold it in your hands
But like the whin that covers our land Strong enough to rule the heart of every man, this thing called love

It can lift you up, never let you down Take your world and turn it all around Ever since time nothing's ever been found stronger than love
Most men are like me. They worry and doubt They trouble their minds day in and day out Too busy with livin' to worry about a little word like love

But when I see a mother's tenderness
As she holds her young close to her breast Then I thank God that the world's been blessed with the thing called love
