Circus

(Smotherman Walker)

I went to the circus

To waste some time

The barker was yelling what's on

So I laid up my money

And I waited in line

The circus was just like home

The crowd had gathered

So I walked on by

To backstage places unknown

I could tell by the fire

And the moon and the sky

The circus was just like home

There were animal cages

And animal tails

Woman who move like a poem

With their vampire faces

And beautiful nails

The circus felt just like home

The strong man was dancing

In the clothes that he borrowed from a girl in the chorus line

And the gypsy was drinking like there's no tomorrow with the

Ringmaster who was drinkng faster

Blessing everybody with wine

Behind at the lion tamer running around

Looking like a Christian in Rome

They were loading the cannon with the Portuguese clown

And the circus was just like home

The strong man was dancing in the clothes that he borrowed

From a girl in the chorus line

And the gypsy was drinking like there's no tomorrow
with the

Ringmaster who was drinkng faster

Blessing everybody with wine

I went to the circus

It was cash in advance

The barker was yelling what's on
He said come to the circus
You can smell the romance
See all the tigers and elephants dance
Thousands of suckers paid up for the chance
And the circus was just like home
