Other Ways of Speaking

(Crowe, Cochran)

I can't tell, if I want to know,

What's on your mind,

Should I just go.

It's a long way down from here

I better start with the stairs

It's a long way down from here

You know there's other ways of speaking

Words are just the deep end

I'm not good at keeping secrets from you

But I can't tell, if I want to know,

What's on your mind,

Should I just go.

It's a long way down from here

I better start with the stairs,

It's a long way down from here

You know there's other ways of speaking,

I can read you when you're sleeping

I can feel you when you're breathing

And breaking in two

But I can't tell, if I want to know

What's on your mind

Should I just go.

It's a long way down from here,

I better start with the stairs

It's a long way down from here

You know there's other ways of speaking

Words are just the deep end

Im not good at keeping your secrets from you
