I don't want to barge in on your secrey see dependency see it means nothing to me I don't want to hear about your problems and I don't want to listen to your apathy see

You're not like me see

You mean nothing to me

All your cash doesn't make you any greener.

(chorus)

I don't need anyone to tell me what to feel.

I don't need anyone to hate the world with me.

Day in, day out It's not that bad.

I worry and I worry but you'll never have to worry again, you'll never be alone.

In my room with a bucket full of phlegm

I don't need a music scene to tell me who I am I should have got a warning should have came a year ago should I sent her a birthday card?

My conscience tells me no.
