run run run all you do is fucking run but you never run away from yourself. i know it's hard but you've been there before and i know you're going to be there again. i don't care what the stars may say because they always feed their bullshit to me. it's kind of sad how you lost what you had and you're never going to have it again and so i say: hey. sergio. it's getting kind of hot in here, i say hey sergio, its gettin kinda hot in here, i say hey. every other day you don't care what they say because they always leave you two steps behind. you try to smile and it lasts for awhile but they always send you back to the start. eenie - meenie - minie - mo they shoot down everyone you know and then they leave you there all alone. you wish they'd stop but they never give up and you know deep inside that you're stuck and so i say: hey. sergio. it's getting kind of hot in here, i say hey sergio, its gettin kinda hot in here, so i say hey.
