This time
He told you to hold on look back on anything even every moment that you remember promise that you hold hold on to that moment and leave the battles uncovered and walk away.
i want you to stay
i want you to believe
i want you to win the battles that are before you will you stay?
you're running away now
you search yourself
even then stories that i re-tell and now from yesterday

it could have gone away
I want you to stay
I want you to believe
I want you to win the battles that are given to you don't you want to stay!
Stay
Stay,oh
Stay,oh oh oh
Won't you
i want you to stay
even if you don't believe so when you come across the battles that you're given don't you care
believe
i want to believe
I'll always remember you
