Many years ago I left my town thought I'd see the world the city
leave the past behind yet the city's made of concrete and the people made of clay.
All my dreams of home are far away.

Cincinnati train
please take me back
I'll come home again
see old friends again
wanna stay there
Cincinnati train
please take me back

will the hills I knew and the morning dew still be there ?

Tried for many years to settle down tried to change my life my feelings
all in vain
'cause the city life and the people aren't the thing for a country
girl
home to me is as a pearl.

Cincinnati train
please take me back
I'll come home again
see old friends again
wanna stay there
Cincinnati train
please take me back

will the hills I knew and the morning dew still be there ?

a drink and a story.

Where the face of the Lord won't show
