Oooh, oo woo wooh

Oo-oo-oooh, oo-hoo-hoo

I could give authority

A million miles away

As my heartbeat feels the silence

With words that I can't sing

My mother used to tell me

Girl, time for you won't come

And so I sit back and I hold time

My time has not begun

CHORUS:

No, don't ever walk away

Just be brave instead

Hold me to the air

And in your arms I'll rise

Up high

I went for tomorrow

Remember yesterday

Ooh, but I was scared of the darkness

And said the things I shouldn't say

Though my my life has changed

Just look what I've become

And so I sit back and I hold time

My life has just begun

(chorus)

Ooh, ooh, Life has been fun as a child

Up the mount without bound

I'm searching for something more

Ooh, loving has no reason

Don't need none to survive

It's just a little flame in my heart

Keeps me burning bright

(repeat chorus x7)

Don't walk away (ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah ah)
