[Intro] [Mike Shinoda talking] Gentlemen and ladies.
Please put down your expensive champagne It's about to get ugly in here. (Yeah. Set it off motherfuckers!) Let's go! My name is Mike Shinoda. And with some help from my man Celph Titled. (You goddamned right!) I would like to introduce to you from Styles of Beyond: Takbir! [Verse One] [Tak] Yeah, I'm here, put a sock in your mouth You now rockin' with Styles That's how we knockin' 'em down No other option around Cause I'm just cockin' and POW! Me and my popular pals Don't make me hop in the crowd, stop jockin' about We taking over and stomping all of your sports spiders Cover and duck, a Machine straight out of Fort Minor Roll with a pack of fifty So when they get they gettin' shifty I put a stamp on it and slap 'em with a flask of whiskey You got your holster blazin' Buzzin' with no sedation I got a (gun cocks) and a party cap for both occasions With something terrible seepin' into your stadium Never perform solo, I'm freakin' sick in the cranium Packin' 'em in, yeah, the ruler gets back We're quick to Crackin' ya shins with aluminum bats Got the place going bananas and they pumpin' they fists I'm tilt my brim to Los Angeles and jump in the pit [Some douche bag talking] What the fuck are you doing, man? You spilled my Cristal all over me [Chorus] [Celph Titled] So raw, so rugged, so rough Like a runaway train we're tearing the track up We're at it again, we're ready to act up So cover and duck, show us you're rockin' with us Let's see a fist if you're rockin' with this Let me see your fist if you're rockin' with this [Verse Two] [Mike Shinoda] From the start 'til the end, night until the dawn It's that fight music cause right when it comes on You just lose control of your elbows and fists Fuckin' other disregard for your body in the pit People are swinging limbs, swinging bottles and chairs Throwin' lime, backin' motherfuckers up in the air So back up, we got you wearing that Fight Club glare Steady, tearing down the club cause you just don't care It's the realest way to feel it when the speakers pop poppin' You with it if you get it when that beat starts knockin' And we kill it when get up on that mic, start rockin' And you feel it when you hear it cause we're on non stoppin' So ask a buddy or a friend if they know, no We do it daily, never maybe, every show, show Y'all want to get down? I'm ready to roll Right now, y'all ready? let's get it, let's go! [Chorus] [Celph Titled] So raw, so rugged, so rough Like a runaway train we're tearing the track up We're at it again, we're ready to act up So cover and duck, show us you're rockin' with us Let's see a fist if you're rockin' with this Let me see your fist if you're rockin' with this Let's see a fist if you're rockin' with this Let me see your fist if you're rockin' with this Ryu! [Verse Three] [Ryu] Yo, so now they notice me, rockin' over Shinoda beats Makin' it crack like the extract in cocoa leaves Hopefully labels love it, if not then fuck 'em I'm cuttin' the break cables, ain't stoppin' at nothing My hype is comin', murder for the price of a muffin You think twice with a steak knife stuck in your stomach I'm like "Who ever wanted whistle? I'll let you bring a pistol" I'll put a verse on both wings like a stinger missile Provoking people to bring it, I keep the weapons stable I'll blow a fucking hole through it like a western bagel Yeah, I talk tough and I rap ignorant too Sick of me kickin' knowledge, getting crap on my shoes I'm off my rocker, a psycho stalker The girl called me David Beckham, she thought I was going to sock her/soccer Nah, I'm the one to get it crackin', the plan works Before I rock a show you gotta fax in the fans first Ready? Let's go! [Chorus] [Celph Titled] So raw, so rugged, so rough Like a runaway train we're tearing the track up We're at it again, we're ready to act up So cover and duck, show us you're rockin' with us Let's see a fist if you're rocking with this Let me see your fist if you're rocking with this Come on, Celph Titled! [Bridge] [Celph Titled] If it ain't raw, it ain't right, so get it right We at it again, now to act up and start a fight So cover and duck cause we runnin' a muck No, cover and duck cause we about to erupt Throw your motherfuckin' hands to the sky, sky And make a fist if you want to get live, live Throw your motherfuckin' hands to the sky, sky And make a fist if you want to get live, live [Outro] [Celph Titled] Come on y'all! Yeah! You like that shit? We had to get real Godzilla on 'em this time Tak and Ryu, S.O.B., Celph Titled. M. Shinoda the Cobra Holder, Demigodz That's how my crew do, shut the fuck up when Fort Minor's talking!
