Stay with me
Here with me
Right in this instant
Not in the distance
When your head is off in future time
That's the place when things get out of line
Taking in this moment
Your time is so well spent

It's alright
Wherever you are right now
I tell you it's alright
That's where you're supposed to be now

Stay with me
Here with me
Right in this instant
Not in the distance
Standing at a crossroads, I was at a loss those Temporary moments pleasures that are stolen
Here in the present
Your time is so well spent

It's alright
Wherever you are right now
I tell you it's alright
That's where you're supposed to be now
That's where you're supposed to be now

A song, one song, could end a war, could end the war
A song, one song, could end a war, could end the war
(Around we go, around we go)
A song, one song, could end a war, could end the war
(Around we go, around we go)

It's alright
Wherever you are right now
I tell you it's alright
That's where you're supposed to be now
It's alright
Wherever you are right now
I tell you it's alright

That's where you're supposed to be now
That's where you're supposed to be now
