Hollow man there is more to life like a lost child will you find your back to the living man?
Or is this the end?
the time is right to hurt to help don't wear it like a coat of shame pick me up I've fallen apart I tear away at the seams this one life you take in vein with this soul this should you gave to a lovers life you could not save
the time is right to hurt to help
I tear away at the seams
you better watch yourself now you just cant tell the thing that's stopping you just might be yourself and if you close your eyes it might just go away and if you close your mind it might just stay that way
the time is right to hurt to help
I tear away at the seems I'm hollow
