Wind blowing through my hair look at you, you don't seem to care can't you just see it was meant to be

Life would would be so beautiful
If i could come home to you Sleep under the sheets
and never wake up
If life was just that simple you'd be mine and i'd be yours and we could live forever
together

Remembering that night we kissed a memory i always miss and now you seem so different i look into your clouded eyes and suddenly to my surprise you walk away from me

Life would would be so beautiful
If i could come home to you

If life was just that simple
you'd be mine and i'd be yours
and we could live forever
together

One day when we're grown you'll see time will pass and the love i've shown will bring you back to me until then, it's all just a dream

Life would would be so beautiful
If i could come home to you

and we could live forever
together
