Did you say make it rain for you

I'd make it storm with a wind like you've never seen before

So sick I couldn't cure your sores

I built a snowman for you

And watched it melt all summer long in front of me

Endlessly I couldn't cure your sores

What have you done for me lately?

Did you say move that mountain for you

I'd spread the wings of time and make it all but crumble away today

If we could watch it together decay

And when you said to enlighten me

I thought I had and now that you understand

One hand washes the other there's nothing more to discover

What have you done for me lately?

Tell me

What have you done for me lately?

Tell me
