Time is a canvas and I will paint it

And with you I bestow what I have it

And you are my colors and you are my colors

And you are my paint to make my life

Feed my dreams some more

Come feed my dreams

You are the clay that molds my life and I spin you around and you see it through

You are the one that I mold into and I mold into and you're everything

Feed my dreams some more

Come feed my dreams

You can't lie before I you shunned

Wild and you lied I am whole again inside you

Feed my dreams some more

Come feed my dreams

You are the fabric that moves my life and the wool that keeps me together inside

And you stitch me cause you walk me through and I am yours and there's nothing before you

Feed my dreams some more

Come feed my dreams

Feed my dreams some more

So much inside you

I can't tell inside you inside you

I'm glad there's so much inside you

Inside you inside you

I'm not asleep
