When I die I'll die with my mercy

When she cries I'll cry with her

In my life see I've loved an angel

My Mercy

My Mercy

Such a glance the softest of skin

Wax dripping so paper thin

Remember oils positions of plenty

Well this memory how it still haunts me

We are love, we are love

When I die I'll die with my mercy

And when she cries I'll cry with her

And in my life see I've loved an angel

My mercy eternal to me

We are love we are made of many

We are two we are made of few

You've taken my life and left me to blame

You'll never understand the shame

I would die for my mercy can't you see

Eternally eternally

We are love we are made of many

We are two we are made of few

We are love we are made of many

We are two we are made of few
