go son
if you get up they they strap you around then just remember that i will always be there when i say to you daddy loves you understand i'm out in the real world again
i'm trying
raise your guard again
they don't give a damn
don't compromise your ideals for anyone else respect your mommy always think of her first
when i say to you daddy loves you understand
son if the sun don't shine i'll try like hell to make light from the dark
son if the sun don't shine

i'll try like hell to make light from the dark for you
