where have you been?

i've been here waiting anticipating

coping with tears

where have you been?

you've been untrue

i've seen it before and i see it again

its quite clear now your phone rang all nite

i waited here waiting anticipating coping with fear where have you been? you've been untrue

you can't stop me you know who i am

this justifies now just what i am

you crucify me won't lay by my side and now you'll need me until i die guess what i'm dead

you've been untrue

i'm dead
