Stuck on your mustang smile
For a baker and a lover's mile
Thought we both could stay here awhile

Caught in your web, wide open
Slowly suffocating and hoping
Where this carousel is going

Wake 1:34
Just a little more
Anything's better
Break 1:35
Just a little lie
Anything's better
And you know this re-run show
In the end
You break, you heal, you try again.

All my confidence together
Sugar makes the pain taste better
Unfolding and re-folding your letter

Secretly so superstitious
Counting all your eyelash wishes
When every dawn's a day against us

Wake 1:34
Just a little more
Anything's better
Break 1:35
Just a little lie
Anything's better
And you know this re-run show
In the end
You break, you heal, you try again.
