What do you see when you look at your world today
Is it so full of clutter that you feel like you're going insane
And you can't fight back cause you're just too afraid
And it seems like the clouds in your sky don't wanna change
You see there's always another story, another side to every coin
And how you see your circumstance is all about a choice

CHORUS

When you see the rushing wind, feel the pouring rain Hear the thunder now as the clouds roll in You're blinded by the lightning
Do you also hear that still, small voice saying It's okay you're not alone

You may be scared to death but I won't let you go
You may think the sky above is falling But can you hear Jesus calling

What do you see when you look at your world today
Do you see a glimmer of hope, or has it all turned to gray
Well start by counting your blessings one by one Oh and I'm sure right there, you'll start to see the sun
You see there's always another story, another side to
every coin
And how you see your circumstance is all about a

Because the darker the night, the brighter He can shine

CHORUS 2x
